DONATIONS.

Since the December Bulletin the Library has received as gifts from friends 196 volumes of books, and 508 numbers of magazines, pamphlets, etc. As our funds for the purchase of books are limited, these gifts are very welcome and useful. Donations of books of all kinds, pamphlets, periodicals, contributions of newspaper clippings, reports of societies and institutions, atlases, maps, etc., are particularly desirable. They will be willingly sent for and duly acknowledged.

DUPLICATES FOR SALE.

A list of about 1,200 duplicate volumes for sale by the Library, with prices affixed, can be seen in the Delivery Room. The list includes many useful works, and members will find it worthy of inspection.

A LIBERAL OFFER.

A copy of the Catalogue will be presented to any person who will obtain Two New Subscriptions to the Catalogue, or Two New Annual Subscriptions to the Library.

Members can effectively promote the interests of the Library by inducing their friends and acquaintances to visit the rooms, and to become members.

For instruction in either of the above Classes, $8 per quarter of twenty lessons, two evenings a week. To all persons who are not members of the Association, two dollars per quarter in addition to these terms will be charged. Members may join at any time. Ladies' classes are held in the afternoon, gentlemen's in the evening. Further particulars can be obtained at the Library, or of the professors.

CLIPPINGS FROM NEWSPAPERS AND OTHER PERIODICALS.

This collection is now classified and arranged by subjects, under several hundred heads, and forms a useful supplement to the books in the Library, as much information is thus made available which has not yet appeared in book form. Contributions of newspaper clippings on any subject will be welcome. Parties at a distance who desire transcripts from the collection on any special subject may address H. K. W. Wilcox, Brooklyn Library.

REGULATIONS.

LIBRARY.—1. The LIBRARY will be open for the delivery and reception of books from 8½ o'clock A. M., to 9 o'clock P. M., daily, excepting Sundays, public holidays, and such other days as the Board may direct.

2. Books must in all cases be charged on the accounts of members before they are taken from the Library.

3. But one book, or two volumes of the same work, will be delivered to any member, excepting life members, and members holding extra subscriptions. EXTRA SUBSCRIPTIONS, entitling members to one extra book, can be obtained for Three Dollars PER ANNUM. SINGLE EXTRA BOOKS can be had for ten cents each PER WEEK.

4. No book can be retained from the Library longer than two weeks. But any book (excepting new books) may be renewed for one week on application. New books can be retained but one week, and without privilege of renewal.

5. Members retaining books from the Library beyond the time specified in the Regulations, will be liable to a fine on every book so retained and the cost of sending therefor.

6. If any book is injured or lost, the person to whom the book is charged must replace the same, or pay an equivalent in money ; if the book be one of a set, he shall receive the old volumes at an appraisal, to be fixed by the Library Committee.

7. No member can take out books on another's account, except by a written order ; and if any books thus taken out are lost or injured, the member on whose account they are charged will be held responsible.

8. Members can have books delivered at their residences or places of business by the payment of five cents for each delivery.

READING-ROOMS—1. The reading rooms will be opened from 8 o'clock A. M., to 10 o'clock P. M., daily, excepting Sundays, public holidays, and such other days as the Board may direct. Also on Sundays, from 2 to 6 P. M., except during July and August.

2. Only members of the Library are entitled to the privileges of the reading room, and, in proof of membership, they are expected to show their tickets, when requested.

3. Any member of the Library may introduce to the reading rooms a friend not a resident of Brooklyn, whose name must be registered by the Librarian, and who will receive a card of admission for four weeks. Persons thus introduced may consult books in the Library, but will not be allowed to remove any books from the rooms.

4. No smoking or conversation is permitted in the Reading Rooms, and it is expected that gentlemen will remove their hats upon entering.

5. No magazine or newspaper shall be taken from the reading rooms without special permission, on penalty of expulsion upon detection, and the same penalty shall attach to cutting, marking, or otherwise defacing said magazines and newspapers.
